

Mi Familia Assignment

Directions: First, create five paragraphs, each one describing a different member of your family. You may make up a fake family or include friends or pets. The paragraphs should have these sentences:

1. Describe what the family member looks like or is like in personality using the verb “ser.”
Example: Mi mamá es alta y cómica.
2. Say what the family member likes or dislikes.
Example: A ella no le gusta cocinar.
3. Say what the family member is going to do using ir + a + infinitive.
Example: Ella va a jugar al golf este fin de semana.
4. Say what the family member has to do using tener + que.
Example: Tiene que ir de compras esta tarde.
5. Say how the family member is feeling right now using the verb “estar.”
Example: Está muy cansada y no quiere ir al supermercado.

Next, have the paragraphs proofread for errors and then incorporate them into one of these four choices below:

- A. Create a short film that shows five of your family members doing something. Create a voiceover that describes each family member.
- B. Create a scrapbook page with five photos of family members doing something. Next to each photo should be the typed descriptive paragraph related to him/her.
- C. Create a small poster with the five photos and five paragraphs. Neatness is important for this.
- D. Create a PowerPoint with five slides, one picture and one paragraph per slide.

Grading:

Grammar and Spelling	___/20
Neatness, Creativity, and Effort	___/20
Presentation	___/10

Mi Familia Assignment

Directions: First, create five paragraphs, each one describing a different member of your family. You may make up a fake family or include friends or pets. The paragraphs should have these sentences:

1. Describe what the family member looks like or is like in personality using the verb “ser.”
Example: Mi mamá es alta y cómica.
2. Say what the family member likes or dislikes.
Example: A ella no le gusta cocinar.
3. Say what the family member is going to do using ir + a + infinitive.
Example: Ella va a jugar al golf este fin de semana.
4. Say what the family member has to do using tener + que.
Example: Tiene que ir de compras esta tarde.
5. Say how the family member is feeling right now using the verb “estar.”
Example: Está muy cansada y no quiere ir al supermercado.

Next, have the paragraphs proofread for errors and then incorporate them into one of these four choices below:

- A. Create a short film that shows five of your family members doing something. Create a voiceover that describes each family member.
- B. Create a scrapbook page with five photos of family members doing something. Next to each photo should be the typed descriptive paragraph related to him/her.
- C. Create a small poster with the five photos and five paragraphs. Neatness is important for this.
- D. Create a PowerPoint with five slides, one picture and one paragraph per slide.

Grading:

Grammar and Spelling	___/20
Neatness, Creativity, and Effort	___/20
Presentation	___/10