

Personal Essay Peer Response

What impression do you get of the individual who has written this? Does he/she come off overly confident? Immature? Undisciplined? Or does he/she come off as confident? Well-adjusted? Genuine?

Does it seem like the person wrote about something totally unique? Why or why not?

Did the description keep your attention? Was it focused or rambling?

Did the story have word choice that made the person seem educated, but not pompous, and clever, but not sarcastic? Explain.

Was there symbolism, description of specifics, descriptive language, characterization and imagery? Did the language seem too plain?

Did it seem like you really got to know the person through this writing? Why or why not?

Would you let this person into your college? Why or why not?